RAINN.org's

[Rape Abuse Incest National Network]

Hotline: 1 (800) 656-HOPE

We serve elder, adult, and child survivors of:

Physical abuse or assault; sexual abuse, assault, or exploitation; neglect, domestic violence, teen dating violence, hate crimes, labor and sex trafficking, identity theft, terrorism, arson, bullying, kidnapping, mass violence, robbery, stalking, survivors of homicide; anyone directly affected by someone else's victimization.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

...occurs among intimate partners of all socio-economic groups. No one is immune to the effects of DV regardless of gender, age, race, religion, or sexual orientation.

SEXUAL ASSAULT & ABUSE

...can be a life-changing experience that can affect men, women, and children. The effects are pervasive.

There are many different forms of sexual violence:

- Rape
- Incest
- Date / acquaintance rape
- Sexual abuse
- Sexual harassment
- Unwanted sexual touching
- Obscene phone calls
- Voyeurism

STALKING

...is a crime in all fifty states and can cause serious emotional distress.

If it would cause a reasonable person to fear for their own safety or that of their immediate family, it is reportable and can be prosecuted.

It could take the form of:

- Sending as few as two written or verbal messages
- Maintaining visual surveillance or physical proximity to person being stalked

HATE CRIMES

...are crimes committed against an individual, group, or property based on the victim's real or perceived:

- Race
- Gender
- Sexual orientation
- Disability
- National origin
- Ethnicity

The role played by these personal characteristics in motivating the offender is the key difference between hate crimes and other crimes

"Wounding and healing are not opposites. They're part of the same thing. It is our wounds that enable us to be compassionate with the wounds of others. It is our limitations that make us kind to the limitations of other people. It is our loneliness that helps us to find other people or to even know they're alone with an illness."

— Rachel Naomi Remen
